RESTRICTION OF PRIVILEGES IN THE VISUAL RESOURCES COLLECTION

Borrowing privileges may be restricted if the collection user:

- is belligerent to staff or other users, disrupting the function of the workplace, or causing a general nuisance
- consistently refuses to acknowledge the stated policies and procedures of the Visual Resources Collection
- consistently neglects or refuses to return slides or other collection property
- consistently refuses to facilitate replacement of lost or damaged slides
- refuses to sign, or otherwise respect, the copyright agreement

When necessary, the curator(s) will initiate action regarding the situation in question with the School of Art Director to determine the term and severity of the restriction of user privilege.
